RUTHERFORD 7.6.7.6.7.6.7.5

Chretien Uhran, 1790-1845

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of D major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. The music features a series of chords and single notes, with some eighth-note patterns in the upper staff.

The second system of music continues the piece with two staves. It maintains the D major key and 4/4 time signature. The melody in the upper staff is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes, while the bass line provides harmonic support with chords and single notes.

The third system of music shows a continuation of the piece. The upper staff features some eighth-note runs and chords. The bass line continues with a steady accompaniment of chords and single notes.

The fourth system of music includes a first ending, indicated by the marking v. 12 above the first measure. The system concludes with a double bar line. The notation includes various chordal textures and melodic lines in both staves.

The fifth and final system of music on this page. It concludes the piece with a final cadence in the D major key. The notation is consistent with the previous systems, featuring two staves in 4/4 time.

The sands of time are sinking,
The dawn of Heaven breaks,
The summer morn I've sighed for,
The fair sweet morn awakes:
Dark, dark hath been the midnight,
But dayspring is at hand,
And glory—glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

2.

The King there in His beauty,
Without a veil, is seen:
It were a well-spent journey,
Though seven deaths lay between.
The Lamb, with His fair army,
Doth on Mount Zion stand,
And glory—glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

3.

Oh! Christ He is the Fountain,
The deep sweet well of love!
The streams on earth I've tasted,
More deep I'll drink above:
There, to an ocean fullness,
His mercy doth expand,
And glory—glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

4.

I have wrestled on towards Heaven,
'Gainst storm, and wind, and tide—
Now, like a weary traveller,
That leaneth on his guide,
Amid the shades of evening,
While sinks life's ling'ring sand,
I hail the glory dawning
From Immanuel's land.

5.

Deep waters cross'd life's pathway,
The hedge of thorns was sharp;
Now these lie all behind me—
Oh! for a well-tuned harp!
Oh! to join Hallelujah
With yon triumphant band,
Who sing, where glory dwelleth,
In Immanuel's land.

6.

With mercy and with judgement
My web of time He wove,
And aye the dews of sorrow
Were lusted with His love.
I'll bless the hand that guided,
I'll bless the heart that plann'd,
When throned where glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

7.

Soon shall the cup of glory
Wash down earth's bitterest woes,
Soon shall the desert-briar
Break into Eden's rose:
The curse shall change to blessing—
The name on earth that's bann'd
Be graven on the white stone
In Immanuel's land.

8.

Oh! I am my Belovèd's,
And my Beloved is mine!
He brings a poor vile sinner
Into His 'House of wine.'
I stand upon His merit,
I know no other stand,
Not e'en where glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

9.

I shall sleep sound in Jesus,
Fill'd with His likeness rise,
To live and to adore Him,
To see Him with these eyes.
'Tween me and resurrection
But Paradise doth stand;
Then—then for glory dwelling
In Immanuel's land!

10.

The Bride eyes not her garment,
But her dear Bridegroom's face;
I will not gaze at glory,
But on my King of Grace—
Not at the crown He gifteth,
But on His piercèd hand:
The Lamb is all the glory
Of Immanuel's land.

11.

I have borne scorn and hatred,
I have borne wrong and shame,
Earth's proud ones have reproach'd me,
For Christ's thrice blessèd name—
Where God His seal set fairest
They've stamp'd their foulest brand;
But judgement shines like noonday
In Immanuel's land.

12.

They've summoned me before them,
But there I may not come—
My Lord says, 'Come up hither,'
My Lord says, 'Welcome Home!'
My kingly King, at His white throne,
My presence doth command,
Where glory—glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

2.
He commanded, and it happened;
Spoke the word, and it was done:
Earth and sky and deepest ocean—
All beneath the moon and sun.

Always
And for ever and for ever
And for always
And for ever and for ever

3.
He took on our human nature—
Mortal flesh—in which we fell,
That humanity not perish
By the law of death and hell.

4.
Here He is: a mother's baby,
Virgin-born, by Spirit strong,
Our Salvation and Redeemer
Pure within, to right all wrong!

5.
Sing high heaven, all you angels,
All together voices raise;
Let no heart or tongue be silent
As we sing God's worthy praise!

6.
Here is He the prophets spoke of
Through the ages all along;
Faithful Promise now before us!
Let us join their sacred song!

7.
King and Judge of dead and living,
Ruling by the Father's might,
Bringing evil to its judgement;
You are true, and just, and right.

8.
Old men, young men, mothers, daughters,
Babes in arms, and children small,
In pure symphony together
Join the chorus, one and all!

9.
To You, Christ, and with the Father
And the Holy Spirit one,
Honour, glory, praise, thanksgiving
Be for all that You have done!

Always
And for ever and for ever
And for always
And for ever and for ever
And for always!

1.
Sovereign grace o'er sin abounding,
Ransomed souls, the tidings swell;
Love so deep that knows no sounding;
Who its breadth or length can tell?
On its glories, on its glories,
Let my soul for ever dwell.

2.
What from Christ that soul shall sever,
Bound by everlasting bands?
Once in Him, in Him for ever,
Thus the eternal cov'nant stands;
None shall pluck you, none shall pluck you,
From the Saviour's mighty hands.

3.
Heirs of God, joint-heirs with Jesus,
Long ere time its race begun;
To His Name eternal praises;
O what wonders He has done!
One with Jesus, one with Jesus,
By eternal union one.

4.
On such love, my soul, still ponder,
Love so great, so rich, so free;
Say, while lost in holy wonder,
'Why, O Lord, such love to me?'
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
Grace shall reign eternally!
